The Rosebrook vanity is a captivating fluid form with warm wood shading and soft polished pulls. The vanity is offered in 36-inch and 56-inch versions and is crafted from solid Oak, the veneer-work an artful arrangement of diagonal laid paneling decorating the doors and sides, juxtaposed by surrounding flat cut veneers surrounding the door frames in simple juxtaposition. The cabinet's rounded sides feature four working doors fitted with cast, stainless steel pulls, its lengths curled inward to fit the hand. A hand-applied, raised metal inlay accentuates the doors and centered faux front panel, its straight detailing contrasting the cabinet's curved, engaging design.
